

Evangelist

The Very Reverend Peter Short

The Very Rev. Peter Short of Fredericton, N.B., the United Church of Canada's 38th Moderator, is Evangelist for the 137th encampment. Peter's service to and in the United Church has taken him to distant and diverse parts of the country during 25 years of ministry. He has served on the Gaspé Coast, Yellowknife, the city of Montreal, and Fredericton, where he continues in ministry at Wilmot United Church. Working mostly in congregations that are in the linguistic or cultural minority has given Peter prolonged exposure to perspectives other than his own. His diversions include biking, music, baking and building canoes. He and Susan, partners for 34 years, are the parents of four children.

SERVICE INFORMATION

Please bring your own copies of Voices United, More Voices, and if possible one or more to share!

Cassette tapes of our services and programs will be available. Some from previous year's services and programs may also be available.

Bible Study & Theology for Today

Jim & Donna Sinclair

Jim has shared Christ's ministry in The United Church of Canada in various roles. These include time spent in the ranching country of the Saskatchewan-Montana border (Wood Mountain), as well as in Canada's Sub-Arctic (Schefferville, PQ), Quebec's Eastern township's (Cowansville) and in the North Bay and Manitou Conference in Northern Ontario. In addition to his work in the pastorate, Jim has been heavily involved in supervised pastoral education, overseas experiences in Central America, South Africa and India and aboriginal issues in Canada. Most recently, he served for five years as the General Secretary of the United Church's General Council.

As the senior writer for the United Church Observer, Donna has received awards for news, features and fiction. Her work has taken her overseas and to most regions of Canada. Now retired, she remains a contributing editor to the magazine. Her latest books are The Spirituality of Gardening and The Spirituality of Bread (Northstone). She is the author of 11 previous non-fiction books and numerous stories for children.

Jim and Donna delight in their three grown children and daughter-in-law; and in their two year old grandson Elijah, who has renamed them, respectively, Baba And Nana.

Youth Leadership

Robyn Brown-Hewitt and David Hewitt

Old Story

Robyn has been coming to Berwick Camp since childhood & Dave has been coming since he met Robyn. Dave is a Diaconal minister serving Cornwallis Pastoral Charge and as Formation Director at AST. Robyn is an Ordained minister serving Wolfville Pastoral Charge. They have worked in youth ministry at all levels of The United Church. They have two sons, Charlie and Nathan.

New Song

"How can we sing God's song in a foreign land?" (Ps.137) Does the place called faith often seem like a foreign land for young people? We'll talk about it. "Sing to God a new song, sing to God all the earth!" (Ps.96) What does contemporary and global music have to say? Through music, discussion and activities, we'll check it out.

See you at the Youth Centre!

Music Leadership

Dr. Bruce Harding & Lloyd MacLean

We are excited to have Bruce & Lloyd returning to lead our music program for the third year in a row! If you were with us in '06 & '07 you'll be thrilled to hear them again. If this is your first encampment... you are in for a real treat!

Please bring your own copies of Voices United, More Voices...

And if you have them: rhythm instruments and djembes (hand drums) too!

Morningside Leadership

Reverend Shawn Redden

The program committee is pleased to announce that our Morningside Leader this year will be Rev. Shawn Redden. Shawn is a minister at St. Paul's United Church in Riverview, New Brunswick. Shawn and her daughter Breanna are also Berwick Campers. We are looking forward to worshipping with her at Morningside!
