

EVANGELIST

Rev. Dr. Barbara K. Lundblad, Joe. R Engle Professor of Preaching, Union Theological Seminary, New York City, NY.

Barbara Kay Lundblad, received a B.A. in English from Augustana College (1966), the M.Div. from Yale Divinity School (1979) and the D.D. from Lutheran School of Theology in Chicago. An ordained minister of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, she served 16 years as a parish pastor in New York City, as well as campus pastor at Lehman College and New York University. She has taught preaching at Yale Divinity School, Princeton Theological Seminary, Hebrew Union College, and in the D.Min. program of the Association of Chicago Theological Schools. In 2007, she served as president of the Academy of Homiletics. Her teaching interests include preaching in partnership with the congregation, preaching and social transformation, new forms of preaching and preaching as an integral part of worship.

During her sabbatical in 2004, Prof. Lundblad participated in a study trip to Israel and Palestine, sponsored by the Lutheran School of Theology in Chicago. Her “journey through that beautiful, troubled land marked by many clashing images” and her “deeply moving visits with people in Israel and the West Bank” have undoubtedly only served to enhance the quality of her preaching and teaching.

Since moving to Union, she has been part of the Pastoral Team at Advent Lutheran Church on 93rd and Broadway, leading worship and preaching on a regular basis.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

Beth-Ann & Jamey Vickery

Schoolteachers Beth-Ann and Jamey are long-time Berwick campers, returning as VBS leaders for their third year. They are really excited to provide learning and activities for children at Camp. This year's theme is Christmas.

MORNINGSIDE

Beth Cameron, New Germany, N.S.

Beth is a well-known friend of Berwick Camp and she's pleased to be leading the Morningside Services this year. Beth is currently studying for the ministry at the Atlantic School of Theology.

Mark Ruhnke

MUSIC

Mark Ruhnke, Director of Music & Organist, St. Andrew's United Church, Toronto, Ont.

Mark returns to Berwick for his third year to lead music for all ages. He is presently a doctoral student with a focus on spirituality and musical pedagogy at UofT. He also holds a Master of Sacred Music Degree from Emmanuel College.

Mark has shared his church music leadership in many ways, including at Aurora United Church, Wexford Heights United Church, Willowbank Resort in Bermuda, the Lutheran Ashram in Minnesota and as a music festival adjudicator in Sunderland and York. He is also a frequent soloist and guest clinician.

YOUTH

Moses Kang & Ruth Noble

Moses Kang is a doctoral student in homiletics at Emmanuel College. He's served as a youth pastor at numerous immigrant churches in Canada and the U.S. One of Moses' passions in ministry is working with youth on a daily basis during summer camps, vacation bible study and short term mission trips. Moses is looking forward to returning to work for his second year with Berwick Youth.

Rev. Ruth Noble is thrilled to be returning to Berwick, especially this time as part of the youth leadership team. Currently Ruth is the Youth and Young Families Minister at Thornhill United Church in Thornhill, Ont. She is really looking forward to connecting with the youth of Berwick!

THEOLOGY FOR TODAY

Michael Bourgeois, Vice-Principal & Associate Professor of Theology, Emmanuel College, Victoria University, UofT, Toronto, Ont.

Marilyn received her B.A. and M.Div degrees from Victoria College & Emmanuel College, UofT. She holds S.T.M., M.Phil. and Ph.D. degrees from Union Theological Seminary in NYC. She teaches basic and advanced degree courses in theological ethics. Her academic interests are grounded in feminist, liberation and postcolonial theological ethics; public vocation of Christian social ethics; transformative theological education.

Michael teaches constructive, historical, and contextual theologies, especially salvation, redemption and liberation; hope, history, and their relation to salvation and social justice; and the relation of theology and the natural sciences. Michael's current research interests include the theological history of The United Church of Canada and the relationship between religious meaning and history and science.

Michael received his B.A. from Loyola University in New Orleans an M.T.S. from Harvard Divinity and a Ph.D. from Union Theological Seminary in NYC.
